Trail Staff

This year the Trail Staff has planned and worked toward bringing to the students and faculty a book that contains a representative record of Salina High for the 1953-1954 school year. The staff hopes that this edition will be a fine addition to the files of yearbooks which contain records of fond school memories.

The staff was under the leadership of Sally Anderson, editor; Carolyn Cornwell, art editor; Jeanne Wooster and Mary Rehling, assistant editors; and Carole Black, business manager.

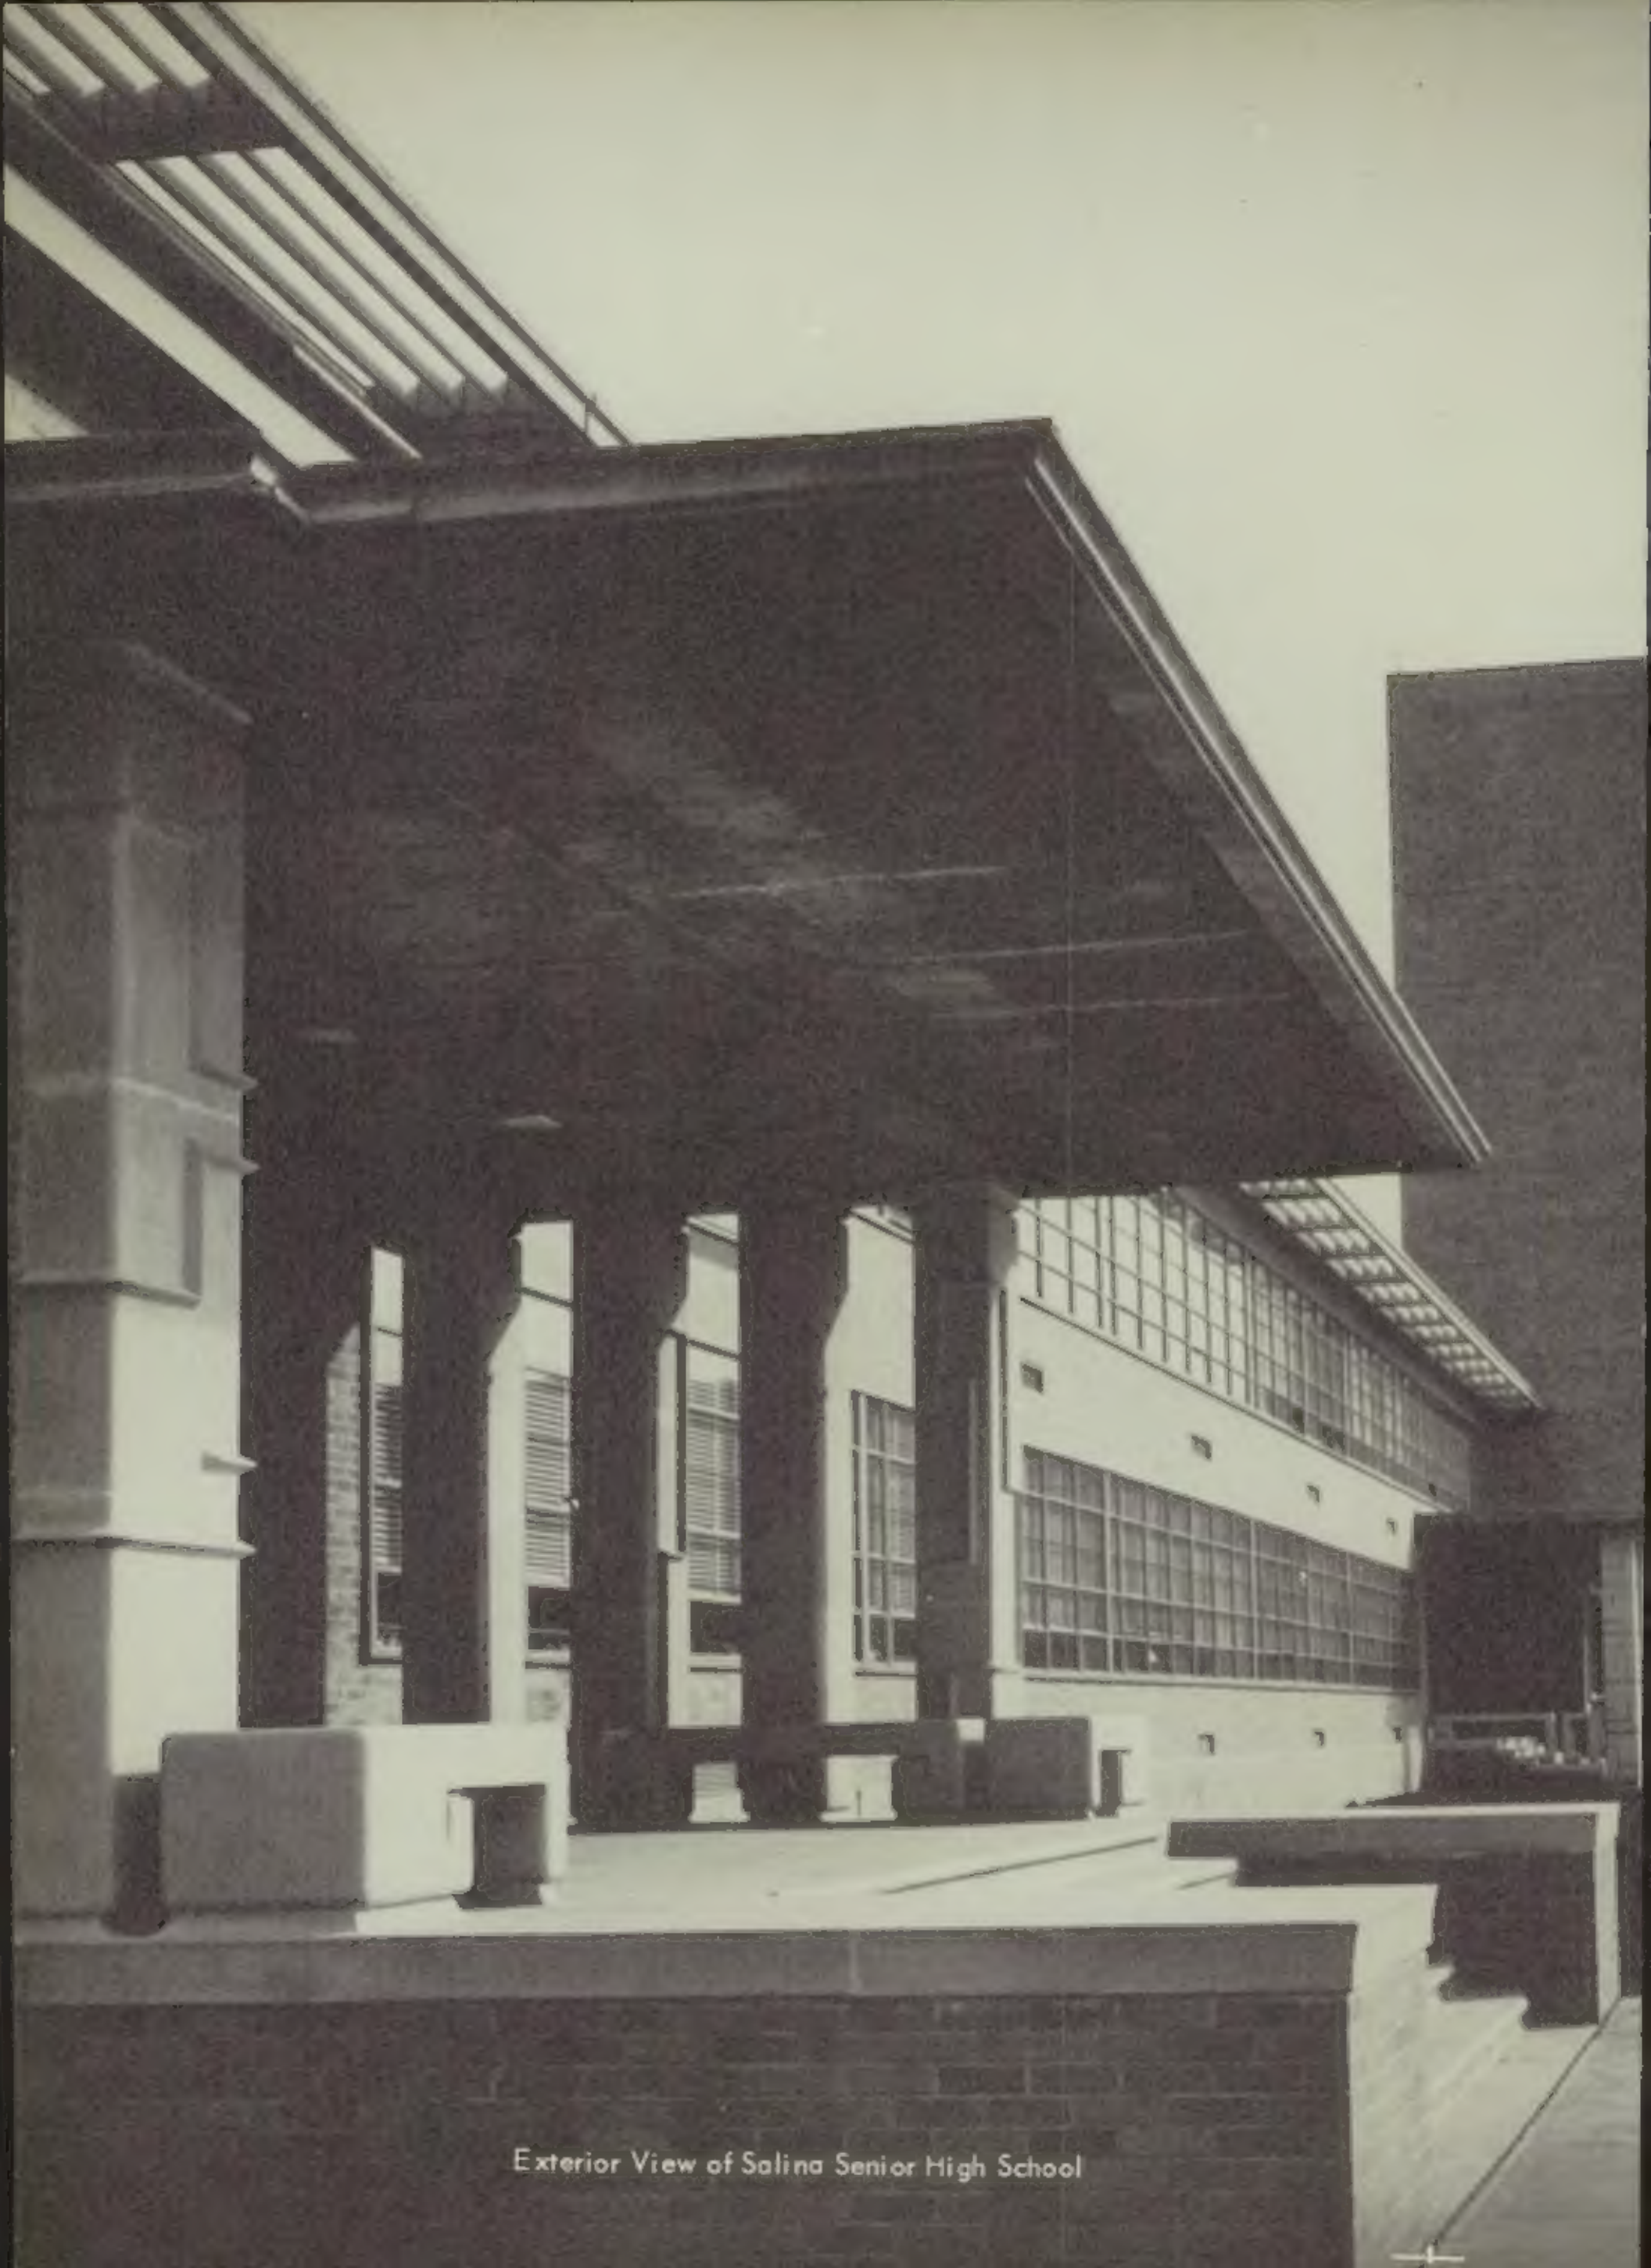

Of course, the book would have been entirely impossible without the help and guidance of Mr. A. E. Bilger who helped the staff over the troublesome spots.

During the past school year the Student Council has been more active than in most years. The Council, composed of 32 members and four officers, was kept busy keeping school activities running smoothly during the entire year.

Each homeroom elected a representative at the beginning of the year to meet with the officers who were elected in the spring of 1953.

In the fall the Council was host to the Regional Student Council Conference with more than 200 students from other schools attending. Along with this responsibility, the Council plunged right into activities for our own school.

Uniforms for the cheerleaders and usherettes were purchased early in the year. The Council took over the assembly programs and began scouting for suitable talent.

One of the big events of the busy year was the planning for the annual homecoming and queen election.

Each Wednesday morning the members would gather in the Little Theater to discuss the problems of the school and to try to find means of making school life happier and more enjoyable.

The Battle of the Bulge

"Lanky Al" Langton dumps one for the Prepsters.

From the opening whistle to the final crack of the gun the Scott-Brooks Academy and the Senior High Prepsters provided hilarious entertainment. A large crowd cheered for the teams as the score was tied many times throughout the game. The final score was 41 to 35 in favor of the Academy with their top scorer, Max Dye, scoring 14 points and Al Langton, Prepster, tossing in 13 counters.

This was a benefit game for the March of Dimes. The Student Council, sponsor of the event, turned over $355 for the polio fund.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Walter M. Ostenberg

Superintendent

W. M. Ostenberg

Walter M. Ostenberg is completing his fourth year as head of the Salina Public Schools. During this time he has helped to provide Salina with some of the best school facilities in the state. As evidence of the confidence business leaders have in him, the Chamber of Commerce elected him president of their organization last winter.

Working with Mr. Ostenberg is the board of education. Together they work out plans for the benefit of school, community, students and taxpayers alike. They approve and execute policies and matters pertaining to the overall school picture.

Salina Board of Education

In these Salinans we see embodied the school spirit of the community. They are the guardians of the destiny of the whole school organization. Seated: Mrs. Clarence Carlson, vice president, Enoch B. Harris; Mr. Ostenberg, William F. Grosser, Jr., president, F.L. Reynolds, clerk. Standing: Grover M. Simpson, Wayne E. Dailey; Herbert L. Glover.

ACTIVITIES

Representative Boy

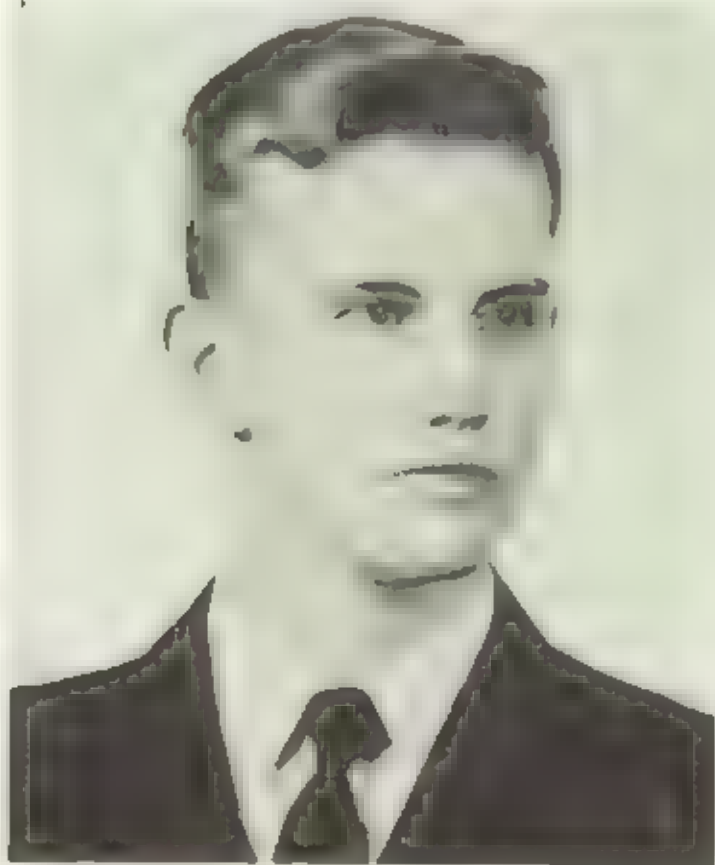

1954 marks the twentieth year that the selection of representative boy and girl has taken place in Salina High. The selection is based upon qualities of achievement, comradeship, co-operation, dependability and ideals.

The honor of being representative boy of the class of 1954 was bestowed upon Rich Wilbur. He was the co-captain of the football team and a regular on the Mustang basketball teams for 3 seasons. Rich also earned two monograms in track. He was president of Hi-Y in 1954 and held the office of secretary in the same organization as a junior. Rich was an officer of Lettermans' Club and vice-president of his freshman class. He has been on scholarship teams and was a member of the National Junior Honor Society.

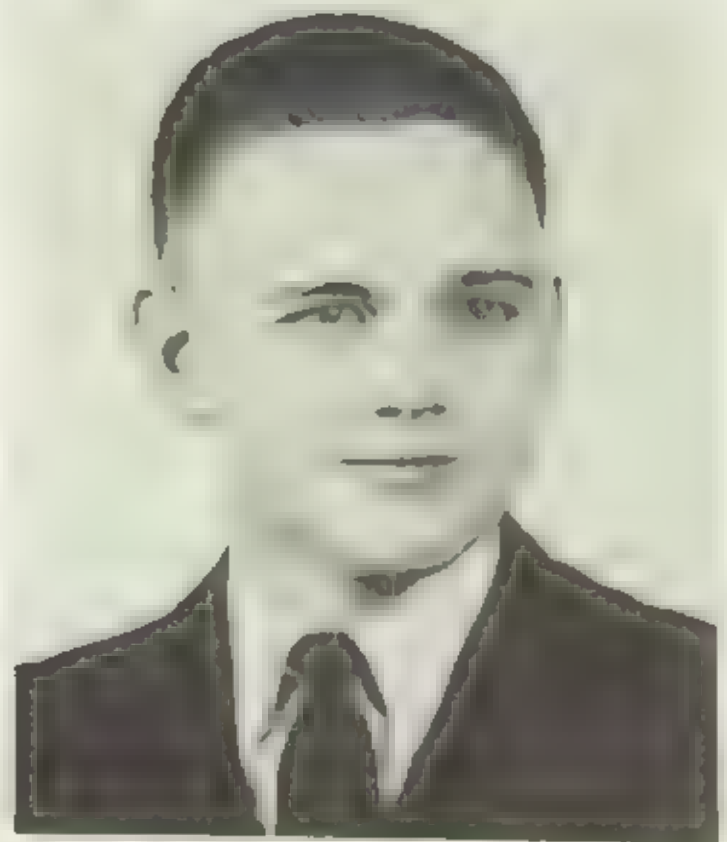

Max Griffin and Jim Schultz were runners-up to Rich. Max served in one of the most important offices in the school — president of the Student Council. He also had a lead in the junior play and was in the cast of the senior play. Jim was a sports editor of the News and vice-president of Hi-Y. He was a member of the National Forensic League, Student Council, the junior play cast and the tennis teams.

Representative Girl

Elaine Kocher was chosen by the seniors as the representative girl of the class of 1954. Elaine has been in the Student Council for two years and was in A Capella choir. She was president of Y-Teen during her junior year. Elaine was a member of the scholarship teams and the National Junior Honor Society.

Shirley Ward and Connie Taylor, runners-up to Elaine, were outstanding in scholarship and many extracurricular activities. Connie has held many offices, including president of Pop Club, junior class secretary, secretary of Science Club and Feature Editor of the News. She was in the junior and senior plays, school musicals and A Capella choir.

Shirley has served as the president of the senior class, assistant director of the senior play, attendant to the queen and co-editor of the News. The lead in the junior play went to Shirley. Both Connie and Shirley were in the top ten in scholarship in their class.

"Yeh, team, fight on to victory! Yeh, team, fight on to victory!" The fighting spirit and enthusiasm of the Salina High pep club was never dampened by defeat. The SHS Pepperettes pushed the various athletic teams to victory many times this past year. The 250 pep club members were responsible for many team-bonsting assemblies and maintained their reputation for good sportsmanship. Whether raising their voices to the loudest cheers or blending their voices in the Alma Mater, the maroon and white clad pepsters were always behind the mustang teams.

Connie Taylor was chosen to head the 1953-54 addition of the Pepperettes. Assisting Connie and the two faculty sponsors, Miss Joan Lorson and Miss Ruth Stoll, were Bonnie Gawith, vice-president and Janice Cornwell, secretary-treasurer.

Compliments of FULLER'S AUTO SALVAGE 501 East Pacific

The Junior Class Play, REMEMBER THE DAY, is a flash back style. It follows the life of a school teacher and one of her favorite pupils Dewey Roberts (Bryce Pfanenstiel) seems a tough acting boy, but under the surface he is just an average kid. Miss Trinell, the teacher, (Sarah Simpson) makes friends with Dewey and brings him out of the hard shell. Things take a turn for the worse when Dewey thinks he is in love with Miss Trinell and is jealous of the attention paid her by the coach, Dave Hopkins (Dee Ulrich). Dewey is mad at the world for his disappointments and decides to go to Military School. Hearing of his departure, his friends arrive to bid him farewell. His happiness is complete when he renews his friendship with Miss Trinell.

The scene is taken back to a hotel lobby where Miss Trinell is waiting to see the confident, successful, grown up Dewey. Life has not been kind to her since the death of Coach Hopkins and she has been left with only fond memories of him. It is a final tragic quirk of life when Dewey fails to recognize the woman who inspired him to become a successful business man. He presents her with a bouquet of violets and departs to end the action.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner"

Sheridan Whiteside had accepted the invitation of the Stanley's to come to dinner as he went through their town of Mesalia, Ohio, on a lecture tour. Unfortunately, he slipped on the front steps and was confined to their home with a broken hip.

When Sherry was about to lose his secretary, Maggie, to Bert Jefferson he invited Lorraine Sheldon, a society glamour girl, to break up the romance.

Whiteside advised the Stanley daughter, June, to elope with Sandy and helped June's brother, Richard, in leaving home.

Whiteside threatened to sue Mr. Stanley for damages and then blackmailed him by threatening to expose the demented sister.

Such novelties as an Egyptian mummy case and a surprise ending added even more comedy to the Kaufman and Hart farce.
